PERLSTEIN BROS

Fourth of July Meeting.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held at the rooms of the commercial club Saturday evening for the purpose of deciding whether we are going to have a Fourth celebration or not. W. J. Hittson was selected as chairman and Warner H. Du Bose, secretary. Col. T. W. Heman addressed the meeting and appealed to all patriotic citizens to take part in the celebration, and suggested the following committee: J. A. Street, H. D. Nichols, C. H. Chenault, C. L. Shelton, M. B. Fowler, Farr Her-ring, S. M. Wharton; naming it the executive committee whose authority it shall be to do any and all things necessary to getting up a grand Fourth of July celebration.

When the committee gets together and reaches a decision as to whether the celebration will be had, we will publish a report and whatever we can get of the plans of same.

Whatever is done about the matter should be done quickly as the outlying communities will soon be making plans for their own entertainment if there is nothing done here.

One of the Sunday picnickers said to the editor: J. J. Harrison and wife, Albert Wilborn and Mrs. May Holmes, Will Davis and Mrs. Ella Blasingan, Dr. D. E. Ballard and Miss Woodall, Misses Jackson, Harvey, Harrison and others spent a pleasant day picnicking at the Blue Water Holes, Sunday. A beautiful place was selected beneath the shade of a grove of cottonwoods, and when the noon hour arrived the ladies spread a bountiful repast of all the good things that tickle the palate of the Lords of creation. The refreshments were ice cream, cake, and—and, well Mr. Editor, I'll tell you later.

The special edition of the TUCUMCARI NEWS is going to be ready for circulation next week and we believe it is going to be appreciated by all artists. It has cost us a great deal of money to get this issue through the press and we have strived to make it a creditable advertisement of our town and country.

The Tucumcari Lodge A. F. & A. M. will have work in the third degree, Monday night, May 20th, 1907. All Masons are cordially invited to attend.
